LATOYA CARVER

WEB DEVELOPER | CREATIVE TECHNOLOGIST

Creative and detail-oriented developer with a passion for building beautiful, functional web experiences. As a licensed nail technician and small business owner, I've honed my eye for design, client communication, and problem-solving. Now, I'm channeling that same energy into software development—combining my love for art, technology, and continuous learning. Ready to bring a unique perspective and strong work ethic to a collaborative engineering team.
